

Prof. Dr. Paul J.J. Welfens, Jean Monnet Professor for European Economic Integration; Chair for Macroeconomics; President of the European Institute for International Economic Relations at the University of Wuppertal, (EIIW), Rainer-Gruenter-Str. 21, D-42119 Wuppertal; +49 202 4391371), Alfred Grosser Professorship 2007/08, Sciences Po, Paris; Research Fellow, IZA, Bonn; Non-Resident Senior Fellow at AICGS/Johns Hopkins University, Washington DC. www.eiiv.eu; welfens@eiiv.uni-wuppertal.de

EIIW 25 Years Anniversary Workshop, Sept. 24, 2021 (Zoom-based)

The EIIW and Paul JJ Welfens, Chair of Macroeconomics and Jean Monnet Chair for European Economic Integration at the Schumpeter School of Business and Economics, University of Wuppertal and Non-Resident Senior Research Scholar at AICGS/University of Wuppertal as well as IZA Research Fellow organize IEEP Special Issue (Journal International Economics and Economic Policy) 2022 planned

Friday, September 24th

Regional Integration, Climate Policy Innovations and Reforms of International Organizations

9:00 Paul JJ Welfens, Welcome Remarks

I. International Integration Dynamics and the IMF
Chairperson: Thomas Gries, University of Paderborn

9:10-10:00 The Macroeconomic Effects of Import Tariffs in a Model with Multinational Firms and Foreign Direct Investment

Werner Roeger and Paul Welfens, EIIW/University of Wuppertal
Discussant: Thomas Gries, University of Paderborn

10:00-10:50 Stages in IMF Modernization: Historical and Economic Perspectives

Harold James, Princeton University
Discussant: Volker Clausen, University of Duisburg-Essen

10:50-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-11:50 Who Benefits the Most from the Investment Spillover Due to the US-China Trade War: A Spatial Model

Tony Irawan, Bogor University
Discussant: Tian Xiong, EIIW/University of Wuppertal

11:50-12:40 The Determinants of Sovereign Risk Premiums in the UK and the European Government Bond Market: The Impact of Brexit

Samir Kadirc, EIIW/University of Wuppertal
Discussant: Manfred Kremer, ECB

12:40-13:30 Lunch Break/Lunch Speech: Alfred Schipke, IMF, Singapore

II. Climate Policy Innovations

Chairperson: Ralf Wiegert, IHS Markit

13:30-14:20 Climate Policy and Greening Economic Growth: Simulation Results

Lucas Bretschger and Alexey Minabutdinov, ETH Zürich

Discussant: Jürgen Jerger, University of Regensburg

14:20-15:10 The circular economy in China and implications for decarbonisation

Raimund Bleischwitz, University College London, Miying Yang

Discussant: Rainer Walz, Fraunhofer Institute ISI, Karlsruhe

15:10-15:30 Coffee Break

III. Reforms of International Organizations and Global Stability

Chairperson: Andre Jungmittag, European Commission, DG Joint Research Centre, Seville

15:30-16:20 Effiziente Klimaschutzpolitik und „grüne Finanzmärkte“

Ulrich Kater, Dekabank; Fritzi Köhler-Geib, KfW; Michael Heise, Macroadvisors; Paul J.J.

Welfens, EIIW

Moderator: Niklas Hoyer, Ressortleiter Geld und Börse, WirtschaftsWoche

Schumpeter School
Stiftung

The EIIW gratefully acknowledges funding from the Schumpeter School Foundation at the University of Wuppertal.